TD Bank Supports Strictly Business & Women's EXPO

TD Bank awarded a generous grant of $5,000 to the Middle Country Library Foundation in support of the Miller Business Resource Center's entrepreneurial events. Strictly Business, which took place on May 3rd, offered an opportunity for networking, marketing and connecting local businesses. The 16th annual Women's EXPO, scheduled for October 6th, provides an educational and supportive venue for local women artisans and entrepreneurs.

Thank You TD Bank!
