

COMMUNITY NEWS

Middle Country

Photo from Middle Country Public Library

Middle Country Library Foundation receives grant

TD Bank recently awarded a generous grant of $5,000 to the Middle Country Library Foundation in support of the Miller Business Center's entrepreneurial events.

Strictly Business, which took place May 2, offered an opportunity for networking, marketing and connecting local businesses. The 17th annual Women's EXPO, held Oct. 5, provided education and support for 82 local women artisans and entrepreneurs.

Pictured above, Long Island East vice president and retail manager Brandon Rainer, TD Bank branch manager Kerry Baardsen, Middle Country Public Library Director Sophia Serlis-McPhillips and Miller Business Center coordinator Elizabeth Malafi.